

COLORED AMERICANS DINE.

Good Speeches and a Pleasant Time at the National Pavilion.

From the Paris Edition New York Times.

An informal dinner was held by the American Negroes now in Paris at the United States National Pavilion last night. The affair was quite unique, in that it produced a reunion and most cordial congeniality among colored people, more or less strangers to each other and meeting for the first time under the hospitable roof of the United States Building in a foreign land, but under the Stars and Stripes. The following were present: Hon. George H. Jackson, U. S. Consul to La Rochelle, France; Thomas J. Calloway, in charge of the Negro exhibit at Paris; Miss J. Imogen Howard, New York, who is here as the guest of the Evening Telegram of New York; Prof. W

A South African on the Race Riot.

To the Editor of The Sun: It forms queer reading to one like myself just returned from South Africa to notice in the newspapers under the headlines of "Race Riots," etc., that "Negroes were attacked by frenzied mobs," and "cries of lynch 'em" were heard from many quarters. Also "that the police freely used their night staves"—on the Negroes of course! And for what? Because a Negro stabs a policeman to death. I feel very sorry for the unfortunate policeman, but is it to be taken for granted that the Negroes hold a special brief—from the man in the moon—for stabbing?

Amazing though it may seem there are cranks in this country who actually tell you without a blush that they can not support the Boer cause owing to their shameful treatment of the poor blacks.

How Money May be Used Sensibly.

If Negroes would take as much pride in contributing money to build industrial schools for their children as they do in skimping themselves to erect fine church edifices with pipe organs, Brussels carpet, stained glass windows and opera chairs, the race would be immeasurably better off, says the St. Joseph Radical. Right you are, Brothers Frederick and Dorsey!

Lynch Law and Miscegenation.

In view of the fact that there are so few charges of criminal assault against Negroes in the North where there are no miscegenation laws and so very many in the South where such laws are the rule, a pertinent question, and one worthy of serious consideration and discussion, is, what relation does lynch law bear to the law of miscegenation? It is an aspect of the question which cannot be ignored by those who are seeking for the truth. White men having license to do as they please with black women; black men are lynched for looking at white women. There should be no miscegenation law in any state of the republic.—New York Age.
